

Speaker Proposal

The International Association of Eating Disorders Professionals New York Chapter (iaedp NY) invites you to submit a proposal for a Quarterly Educational Event. The iaedp NY Chapter leadership reviews proposals and makes selections for the upcoming calendar year. During review of the submitted abstract, they consider a speaker's experience and credentialing along with new information, research, and innovative treatment options applicable to the treatment of eating disorders. We are seeking abstract submissions for 1.5 hour presentations.

Please submit the following information to President@iaedpny.com:

[] Updated CVs for all presenters and includes current mailing, emails, and all phone numbers.

[] Proposal Syllabus: Brief presentation and abstract describing presentation ideas, themes, and goals. Please include your plan to address race and diversity in your presentation

[] Three (3) References: Please include journal articles, books published within the last 5 years or additional research which are relevant to the program content. No self-referencing please.

You will be asked to accept the following conditions:

Speakers are to lecture on a topic of interest to the ED community and are not to use the time to promote or sell a particular service or program. If the speaker provides a service or is from a program that is also sponsoring the event, either the speaker or the marketing person from that program can discuss and/or promote the service or program during the sponsorship time only.

Speaker agrees to not defame, slander or libel any person, firm or corporation, to present sessions according to iaedp Standards of Professionalism and shall not denigrate iaedp NY, its programs or representatives in any manner. Speaker agrees that all materials and content presented do not infringe or violate any copyright, trademark, patent or intellectual property rights of any person or entity, nor do they promote or endorse any product, service, or device which may or is at the time of the event not approved by any governing agency.

Speaker agrees to not sell or promote any particular product or service at any time during the educational presentation.
